Snail Races Return for Folsom's 80th Celebration

Ready... Set... Sloooow! The Great Folsom Snail Race returns as part of the City of Folsom's 80th birthday celebration on Saturday, May 9 at Folsom City Lions Park.

This fun, family-friendly tradition invites kids, residents, and businesses to enter their fastest snail for a chance to win prizes and Folsom bragging rights. All participants will receive a commemorative Snail Race T-shirt.

Races take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., with preliminary heats leading to quarterfinals and beyond. Special competitions include: Best Presentation ▪ Best Named ▪ Best Dressed Snail Handler

Launched in 1981, the Great Folsom Snail Race became a favorite community tradition, bringing together families, businesses, and local leaders throughout the 1980s and 1990s.

Snail race registration is $50, with proceeds supporting the Folsom Athletic Association's "Never in Our Town" Youth Assistance Program, helping ensure all youth have the opportunity to participate in recreational sports.

Spots fill quickly. Register today and be part of one of Folsom's most memorable traditions.

Here is the link for you and team for the discounted California State Fair tickets. Please keep in mind that the link will expire and your team will not be able to purchase these tickets at a discounted rate after the start of the Fair. This link does not include the fun pack as you can purchase that through the Cal Expo website. If you would like a link to that as well, please do not hesitate to ask.

Instructions on how to purchase:

Once you click on the link you will need to input a password. The password to access the tickets is "California". This is case sensitive and the "C" must be capitalized.

Please do not give this link and password to anyone outside of your team/agency.

Thank you again for your interest and we hope to see your team at this year's California State Fair.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,

Tommy Shea
